ETHICS

Why choose ethics classes for your child?

Ethics classes for all age groups run in the SRE/SEE* timeslot in schools each week.

Classes are free and are run by specially trained volunteers, who are often parents and grandparents.

The lessons are prepared by experts in the fields of childhood education and ethics. Our curriculum is reviewed by the Department of Education.

Ethics classes are for children of all faiths and none.

Ethics classes are designed to get children thinking, deeply and well.

“Ethics classes help me think about things more carefully and try to make better choices”

What happens if you send your child to a weekly ethics class?

Ethics lessons explore everyday ethical issues pitched at your child's age level.

Ethics teachers present stories and questions that encourage children to consider what they would do - and what they ought to do - in that situation. The teachers don't give their own opinions - they help the children to discuss amongst themselves issues such as:

- what if I hurt someone without meaning to?
- what if I break a promise?
- when, if ever, should we tell on someone?
- is bragging wrong?
- what is fairness?

Every ethics class follows 6 rules.

- 1 Only one person speaks at a time.
- 2 Pay attention to the person who is speaking.
- 3 Speak to the other students, not just the teacher.
- 4 Give others a chance to speak.
- 5 Build on others' ideas.
- 6 No put downs.

"I realise that I can still like someone who has a different opinion"

"It really helps with your personal confidence to know your opinion is valued in ethics"

Which skills will my child develop in ethics classes?

- careful listening to all points of view
- being able to disagree without put-downs
- resisting peer pressure without losing friends
- understanding other children's problems
- giving evidence-based reasons for their opinions.

These are essential skills as they grow up in our complex and pressurised world.

What do children say about ethics?

"I learned that it is okay to be honest about what you think"

"I learned how to tell friends I didn't want to do things they tried to make me do"

Why not volunteer as an ethics teacher?

- it's a rewarding way to get involved and learn new skills yourself
- you can have a positive impact for the future generation
- we offer comprehensive free training and ongoing support
- join a community of volunteers from all walks of life and all ages.

How to enrol?

If your child is starting kindergarten, you should be given an SRE/SEE enrolment form. Otherwise, contact your school office to inform them that you want your child to attend ethics classes.

What if my school doesn't offer ethics?

Ethics classes depend on having enough trained volunteers to run the classes. We always welcome new volunteers and offer free training workshops throughout the year, both online and face to face, to suit your schedule.
