

YOUR SCHOOL NEEDS

YOU

Every school team needs an ethics coordinator.

It's hard to believe, but we have schools with up to 20 ethics teachers but no ethics coordinator.

If you are the kind of person who ...

- ❖ enjoys getting things organised
- ❖ always ensures everyone knows what's going on
- ❖ likes to bring people together
- ❖ wants to see the ethics program grow at your school

then, now is the time to step forward so you are trained up ready to go next term.

REWARDS AND FLEXIBILITY

- ❖ Work from home for only 1-2 hours a week
- ❖ Free online training - learn new skills
- ❖ No need to have ethics teaching experience
- ❖ Be part of a committed team of like minded people
- ❖ Become more embedded in your school community
